

Market News

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Substantially the same factors and influences which have held the stock market in check recently were extensive today. Trading was largely limited to speculative favorites and price changes were mainly downward.

Money was the pivot around which the sluggish market revolved. Call money opened at yesterday's early rate of 8 per cent, rising to 9. On the surface no perceptible change occurred in quotations for time money, but the supply indicated increasing diminution.

In banking circles the tightening of credit was chiefly attributed to withdrawal from this center of reserves held by interior financial institutions. Of the day's stock dealings the more prominent were General Asphalt, Mexican Petroleum, Atlantic Gulf and a few rails, notwithstanding Northern Pacific and Texas Pacific.

The market was raised in the last hour, heaviness centering in Atlantic Gulf, Crucible Steel and popular oils. Selling was concurrent with the news that the Philadelphia Reserve bank had raised its rate of discount on indebtedness certificates from 5 to 5 1/2 per cent. Sales amounted to $35,000 shares. Foreign exchange was vigorous, firming in sterling being offset by heaviness in many of the continental remittances. Negotiations for a $25,000,000 loan to Chile are in progress of completion, but other South American loans are in abeyance.

Liberty issues improved, also some local traction issues, but the general bond market was irregular and narrow. Total sales, par value, $12,450,000.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Putting a ban on the use of Argentine quotations here tended today to give an advantage to bulls in the wheat market, but the effect failed to last. Notice of a bank's refusal in the New York flour trade had a depressing influence and so, too, did absence of any important movement demand. On the other hand, there was considerable selling on the part of yesterday's buyers. Opening quotations, which varied from changed figures to 1 1/2c higher, with March $1.54 1/2 to $1.57 and May $1.46 1/2 to $1.47, were followed by setbacks all around to well under yesterday's close. Corn paralleled the action of wheat. After opening 1 1/2c off as like wheat, it then hardened somewhat and then underwent a general sag.

Cattle were governed by the course of other cereals, and then unchanget to a shade lower, then scoring moderate gains and later heading down grade.

Higher quotations on hogs gave a firmness to provisions.

Florence Notes

FLORENCE, Feb. 3.—Some of the people in the vicinity of the court house here thought that anarchists were at work when a report which shook houses for blocks around came from the county plant Friday and three pieces of corrugated iron roofing about the place. A defective air tank was the cause of the excitement, and no very serious injury resulted. The tank was guaranteed for 200 pounds, but the gauge showed but 150 pounds of pressure, so the pump was still filling it when suddenly it blew up. The lid of the shed where the tank was located was torn out and the plumbing in the vicinity of the tank and engine ripped up. Tools were scattered about the place and two men who were working in the shop at the time were blown several feet by the force of the explosion, but escaped with slight bruises. The shop has been repaired and a new tank will be installed the last of the week.

People who chanced to go out South Main street Monday morning and returned in the evening brought back with them "seed" things on the return trip. When they went out in the morning they beheld at the northwest corner of Main street and Butte avenue a building but a short time, but in the evening there was a large frame building, about 35x50 feet, practically completed on the outside, occupying the previously vacant lot.

The new tabernacle erected by the Arizona Christian Missionary association under the direction of R. E. Dunlap, state superintendent of missions for the Christian church, is the building which will hold 300 people and a series of evangelistic services will be held in it, beginning Wednesday night. Rev. A. L. Crim of Portland, Ore., will conduct the services, assisted by Charles Macey of Phoenix, who will have charge of the music.

The Kenilworth Farmers' association held a regular meeting at Kenilworth school Tuesday night and discussed the matter of organization and programs. The matter of securing outside speakers was considered and left to the hands of a committee. Methods of perfecting the organization were also discussed. About 20 farmers and their wives were present, and also a group of eight from the Florence high school, consisting of Superintendent Robertson, Professor Jennings of the agriculture department, and six of his students. After the meeting quantities of home made cakes were enjoyed.

Tentative plans for light school work along agricultural lines, to be open to those qualified to take similar work in high school, also were made. Mrs. Chester entered at her home on Monday night with an informal dance in honor of Miss Lenna Bailey, who is visiting in Florence from Port Huron, Mich. Twelve couples enjoyed her hospitality.

Another enjoyable affair was given by Mrs. W. L. Lane at her home Wednesday evening. This was in the nature of a "party" and was enjoyed by about twenty of her young friends. Many and weird were the costumes worn and they afforded a great deal of mirth. The evening was spent in games and dancing.

Miss Lola LeBaron, county superintendent of schools, left Monday for a week's tour of inspection of schools in the upper part of the county.

Charlie Hines, for some time a deputy sheriff in Florence, resigned his position Feb. 1 and left Wednesday for Phoenix.

Miss Juanita Varnaz of Phoenix was in town Wednesday visiting her sister, Miss Mercedes Varnaz, music head of the city schools.

The grammar school basketball teams won two victories over Washington school last Friday. The boys' score was 26 to 19 in favor of Peoria, and the girls' was 19 to 5. Miss Julia Gillis was the referee for both games. The games were on the Washington school ground.

A farce comedy was put on at the grammar school auditorium by local talent under the direction of C. V. Tilden. The title was "The Count of No Account." It was under the auspices of the Woman's club.

WHAT TO DO WITH COTTON PICKERS IS GROWING PROBLEM

GLENDALE, Feb. 3.—The question that is assuming larger proportions each day is, "What is to be done with this imported Mexican labor?" When it came time to harvest the cotton in the valley an association was formed to import labor to do the picking and vast hordes of Mexicans were brought into the valley. Now that the cotton picking season is over the Mexicans want to go back to their native land.

No blame can be laid at the door of the association on account of the fact that the Mexicans cannot return. They should have saved enough of their wages to get them back to Mexico. But a great many have not done this and now want to be shipped back.

However, there are others who have been unable to collect their wages due them, as there has been no market for cotton and the farmers have been unable to raise the money to pay them. This latter condition is the one that is causing the most trouble.

Consul Ruiz of Los Angeles, in company with Consul Cordova of Phoenix, was in Glendale Wednesday looking into conditions with the idea of solving the problem and adjusting matters satisfactorily to all. Mr. Ruiz had received a telegram from President Obregon to look into the situation and report. He stated that after investigating the matter he would have a conference with Governor Campbell and see if the pickers could not get immediate relief.

Many of the Mexicans and their families were in Glendale Thursday and Friday trying to see if anything had been done as yet. According to the statements of some of them, they had not been paid their wages from the last picking, and besides not having the money to go home, were without funds with which to purchase food for their immediate needs.

The Woman's Missionary circle of the Baptist church will have its regular meeting Friday afternoon at the church. Business of importance will be discussed and all members are urged to be present. —Mrs. Jones

Art of Transportation

What is said to be one of the most peculiar modes of transportation was witnessed in the streets of Glendale Thursday afternoon. The tourists were Mexicans and had as the main part of their vehicle an old truck body on which wheels had been fixed. To this were hooked four burros. In front of the animals was a two wheel trailer, attached to a long tongue extending from the wagon. Thus the burros pulled the four wheel wagon and pushed the trailer at the same time. In order to negotiate curves, the trailer in front of the whole apparatus was guided by a steering wheel. Many kind of vehicles have been witnessed passing through Glendale in times past, but this one was voted the "brown derby" as being the most unique.
